Members absent: Joni Cobb

Visitors present: Heather S. Esau Zerger, City Attorney

Chairman Immenschuh called to order the meeting of the City Planning Commission at 4:00 p.m. and a quorum of the CPC was present.

Discussion ensued regarding the proposed changes to the Planned Office District Ordinance and whether the restrictions regarding the types of businesses that could be located within property bearing this zoning designation should be specific or general. The CPC reached some consensus that they would prefer to see the City Attorney rewrite the draft ordinance with more specific restrictions rather than the more general restrictions that appeared in the version that had been circulated to the CPC members. The City Attorney agreed to prepare revisions and recirculate the draft in preparation for the public hearing.

Meeting adjourned at 5:06 p.m.
